

Factsheet N8: Targeted Interventions among Key Populations in Nepal, As of July 2013

People who Inject Drugs, 2013

- Harm reduction program (Needle Syringe Exchange and OST program) are key interventions among people who inject drugs in Nepal.
- NAMUNA and Save the Children supported NGOs are implementing harm reduction services with the support from government of Nepal and its pool partners and the Global Fund.

Indicators	Achievements
	16 July 2011 -15 July 2012	16 July 2012 -15 July 2013
Number of districts covered	23	23
Reached through BCC	6,064	11,832
Condom distributed	226,258	535,824
HIV tested and counseled	1,731	4,561
STI diagnosed and treated	2,192	1,111
Needle/Syringe exchanged/provided	159,892	2,033,101
On Methadone	NA	421
On Bupronorphine	NA	550

Men who have Sex with Men and Transgender People, 2013

- The priority targeted prevention intervention among MSM and TG are behavior change interventions, including provision of condoms and lubricants, HIV testing and counseling, diagnosis and treatment of STIs and referral services.
- The Blue Diamond Society is implementing the interventions with the support from government of Nepal and its pool partners and the Global Fund.

Indicators	Achievements
	16 July 2011 -15 July 2012	16 July 2012 -15 July 2013
Total reached through BCC	40,827	44,496
Condom distributed	1,123,306	2,012,381
HIV tested and counseled	8,451	9,810
STI diagnosed and treated	8,135	8,348

Migrants and their Spouses, 2013

- Male labor migrants (particularly to India) and clients of FSWs in Nepal acts as bridging populations for HIV transmission to general and other risk population. Spouse of migrants and their children are equally at higher risk for acquiring HIV.
- The priority targeted prevention intervention among migrants and their spouses are behavior change interventions, including provision of condoms, HIV testing and counseling, diagnosis and treatment of STIs and referral services.
- The Government and its partners, FPAN, Save the Children, CARE and Saath-Saath Project are implementing Intervention through NGOs among migrants and their spouses.

Indicators	Achievements
	16 July 2011-15 July 2012	16 July 2012-15 July 2013
Reached through BCC	79,076	309,954
Condom distributed	673,076	1,215,896
HIV testing and counselled	59,415	60,929
STI diagnosed and treated	40,113	40,701

Prison Inmates, 2013

- The priority targeted prevention intervention among prison inmates are behavior change interventions, condom distribution, HIV testing and counseling, diagnosis and treatment of STIs and referral services.
- Youth Power Nepal is the implementing agency supported by the Government and its partners, FPAN and Save the Children.

Indicators	Achievements
	16 July 2011-15 July 2012	16 July 2012-15 July 2013
Reached through BCC	1,869	1,610
HIV testing and counseling	1,329	1,247
STI diagnosis and treated	514	251

Female Sex Workers and their Clients, 2013

- The priority targeted prevention intervention among female sex workers and clients are behavior change interventions, including provision of condoms, HIV testing and counseling, diagnosis and treatment of STIs and referral services.
- Clients of female sex worker are the bridging population for HIV transmission into general population.
- The Government and its partners, Saath-Saath Project and Save the Children are implementing intervention through NGOs among female sex workers and their clients.

Indicators	Achievements		Clients of FSWs
	16 July 2011-15 July 2012	16 July 2012-15 July 2013	16 July 2011-15 July 2012	16 July 2012-15 July 2013
Number of districts covered	29	29	29	29
Reached through BCC	22,573	28,686	49,319	69,631
Condom distributed	1,987,163	2,813,118	1,058,879	1,502,802
Tested for HIV	6,066	7,720	8,100	10,553
STI diagnosed and treated	6,260	7,769	7,915	729

For Further Information Please Contact:

National Centre for AIDS and STD Control

Teku, Kathmandu

Phone : +977 - 1 - 4261 653, 4362 753, 4258 219

Email : info@ncasc.gov.np, Fax : +977 - 1 - 4261 406

Website : www.ncasc.gov.np